

ACROSS

1. Marguerite Henry wrote a children's book about a burro named _____, who lived in the Grand Canyon.
3. The state bird is the cactus _____.
4. The _____ is one of only two venomous lizards in the world, and it lives in Arizona.
7. The tallest cactus in the world is the _____.
9. The largest city in Arizona is _____, also the state capital.
11. Astronauts trained at _____ Crater in the 1960s, to prepare for the Apollo moon missions.
13. During World War II, the U.S. Government employed _____ code talkers to transmit secret battlefield plans.
14. A famous Arizona landmark used to span the Thames River in _____. Now it's in Lake Havasu City.
15. Clyde _____ discovered Pluto in 1930 at the Lowell Observatory.
16. The _____ is Arizona's state tree.
17. The tallest mountain in Arizona is _____ Peak. It is 12,633 feet tall.

DOWN

2. A _____ is a large fuzzy spider.
5. Arizona has sometimes been called the _____ state, because it became part of the U.S. on February 14, 1912.
6. Petrified _____ is the state fossil, found at Petrified Forest National Park.
8. Arizona's neighbor to the south is _____.
10. These tiny birds are famous for their acrobatics.
12. The state neckwear is the _____ tie.

Created by Jennifer J. Stewart, author of The Twelve Days of Christmas in Arizona, illustrated by Lynne Avril